

WALTER AND ELIZA HALL TRUST OPPORTUNITY SCHOLARSHIP

The Public Education Foundation's Walter and Eliza Hall Trust Opportunity Scholarship provides financial assistance to students who have a physical disability to enable them to reach their academic potential.

Since its establishment by Eliza Hall in 1912, the Walter and Eliza Hall Trust have been helping many Australians in need. During that time many tens of thousands of Australians and their families suffering the effects of poverty have been assisted in surviving a crisis. Many others have been helped to reach their full potential.

The Walter and Eliza Hall Trust Opportunity Scholarship will provide a student with a physical disability transition into tertiary education to study for a degree. Please note – this scholarship is for students studying on-campus only. Students planning to study via on-line mode are ineligible to apply. (Flexibility will be allowed during ongoing restrictions around COVID).

Up to five scholarships are available to support students in 2023, each valued at up to $10,000. Each scholarship will be split into two equal payments to be made after census day each semester of the 2023 university calendar.

The scholarship is to cover educational expenses such as:

- Laptop, iPad or similar device to undertake/enhance your studies
- Assistive technologies required to undertake/enhance your studies
- Subject or study related software, printer, stationery and textbooks
- Mobility scooter or other disability aids to assist in travelling to/from and moving around campus
- Home wifi for study
- Furniture for study (desk, lamp, chair etc)
- Face-To-Face Tutoring or Online Tutoring
- Transport costs for travel to/from University

The scholarship funds cannot be used for your Fees/HECS debt. Use of funds towards accommodation must also be limited to a maximum of 40%.

If a student discontinues their tertiary education, or moves to on-line study only, the scholarship will lapse. Any unspent monies at the end of the scholarship period must be refunded to the Public Education Foundation scholarship fund.
