

EMORGO SCHOLARSHIP FOR MUSIC

The Public Education Foundation's Emorgo Scholarship for Music assists a talented musician commencing at the Conservatorium High School. The scholarship is offered to a student entering Year 7 at the Conservatorium High School as a member of the Junior Vocal Stream or as an instrumentalist majoring in the study of a woodwind instrument OR existing Conservatorium High School students currently in Year 7, 8 or 9 who are majoring in woodwind or the French Horn.

The Emorgo Scholarship for Music will provide a payment of $5,000 to assist with expenses related to musical studies and education expenses.

The scholarship is to cover musical and educational expenses such as:

- Purchase of a musical instrument relevant to their musical studies
- Musical tuition
- Uniforms and other equipment
- Stationery and books
- Laptop
- Course or study related software
- Printer
- Excursions and camps

The student must remain enrolled as a student of the Conservatorium High School's Junior Vocal Stream or continue to pursue the study of a woodwind instrument at the Conservatorium High School for the duration of the scholarship.

If a student leaves the Conservatorium High School during the scholarship period, the scholarship will lapse. Any unspent monies at the end of the scholarship period must be refunded to the Public Education Foundation scholarship fund.

Before applying for this scholarship, please ensure that you read the scholarship terms and conditions available on our website.
