

MRIN AND PRAKASH NAYAGAM VICTORIAN SECONDARY SCHOLARSHIP

The Public Education Foundation's Mrin and Prakash Nayagam Victorian Secondary Scholarship provides financial assistance to refugee and Indigenous students to assist in their secondary school education.

The Mrin and Prakash Nayagam Victorian Secondary Scholarship is designed to assist students in financial need who may otherwise not have the opportunity to reach their full potential.

Two scholarships are available for eligible refugee and Indigenous students currently enrolled in Year 6 in a Victorian public school. Each scholarship consists of a bursary of $2,000 per year for six years (total $12,000) to support the students studies.

The scholarship is to cover educational expenses such as:

- Laptop, iPad or similar device
- Subject or study related software, printer, stationary and textbooks
- Uniforms and equipment
- Excursions and camps
- Curricular and extra-curricular learning opportunities
- Furniture for study such as desk, chair, lamp etc
- Home wifi for study
- Face-To-Face Tutoring or Online Tutoring

If a student leaves public school before the end of Year 12, the scholarship will lapse. Please note - if a student's attendance rate falls below an acceptable level at any time during the duration of the scholarship, the scholarship may be withdrawn. Any unspent monies at the end of the scholarship period must be refunded to the Public Education Foundation scholarship fund.

Before applying for this scholarship, please ensure that you read the scholarship terms and conditions available on our website.

SELECTION PROCESS

A selection panel will review all scholarship applications and assess them against the selection criteria. The selection panel will include representatives of the Public Education Foundation and independent experts. After considering all applications, the selection panel will recommend the selected applicants for the approval of the Public Education Foundation's Board. The successful applicant will be notified in December 2023.

Applicants will be notified of the outcome via email. If successful, the scholarship recipient's school principal will also receive notification directly.
