

LILLY MURPHY MEMORIAL SCHOLARSHIP

The Public Education Foundation's Lilly Murphy Memorial Scholarship supports public school students who are passionate about equity and social justice. The scholarship targets students whose personal circumstances are such that without the scholarship they may not have the opportunity to reach their full potential.

The scholarship is named in memory of Lilly Murphy, who was studying Year 12 studies at Princes Hill Secondary College when she became ill with cancer and tragically passed away in November 2021.

Lilly was passionately involved in school and community activities around climate action, women's rights, LGBTQI+ equality, First Nations sovereignty and worker rights. This scholarship has been established in honour of Lilly, her courage and her commitment to equity and social justice.

Each scholarship will provide financial support of $1,250 per year for years 11 and year 12 (total scholarship value is $2,500 per student) to support the students' studies whilst enrolled in high school. Students are also offered free access to Studiosity and mentoring.

The scholarship is to cover educational expenses such as:

- Incidental fees (eg. Text book hiring, costs associated with a specialised subject etc)
- Uniforms and equipment
- Stationery and general office items and equipment
- Text books
- Laptop, iPad or other similar device
- Subject/study related software
- Printer
- Internet connection for study at home
- School excursions and school camps
- Furniture for study such as desk, chair, lamp etc
- Face to face or online tutoring

If a student leaves public school before the end of Year 12, the scholarship will lapse. Please note - if a student's attendance rate falls below an acceptable level at any time during the duration of the scholarship, the scholarship may be withdrawn. Any unspent monies at the end of the scholarship period must be refunded to the Public Education Foundation scholarship fund.

Before applying for this scholarship, please ensure that you read the scholarship terms and conditions available on our website.
